

Test Paper 2

Total marks: 30

1. Circle the verbs in the passage.

(4 marks)

A young Chinese student was talking to his teacher one day. He asked his teacher a question: "Sir, is there any good in talking a lot?" The teacher replied, "Toads and frogs croak night and day, but no one pays attention to them. But the cock crows at a certain time, early in the morning. Everyone listens to it and wakes up at dawn."

The student nodded. He had understood. The teacher smiled at him and said, "No good is done by talking too much. It is important to say the right thing at the right time."

2. Underline the adverbs in the passage below.

Yesterday, my cousins visited us. At first, we played games and chatted. Later, we thought of a plan. We decided to go to the forest for a picnic. The forest is near our house. We walked quietly and quickly carrying torches. Luckily for us, the moon was shining brightly. Suddenly we stopped. We had heard a tiger roar.

Now write the adverbs under the correct column below.

when	where	how
