

English Grammar
Lesson 20
Simple Future Tense

A. Write five sentences on what you will do when you grow up.
Do it by yourself in your rough notebook.

B. Fill in the blanks with the future tense of the verbs given in brackets.

1. I shall reach home by 5 pm.
2. Today I shall stay at my aunt's place.
3. I shall sit for the class test tomorrow.
4. In the drama, Meena will play the role of the Queen.
5. Shanti will buy the CD tomorrow.
6. I shall call the doctor to come immediately.
7. Mrs Mathur will teach Maths from today.

C. Make the following sentences negative.

1. He will not reach office on time.
2. This year my birthday will not fall on Saturday.
3. They will not divide the duties among themselves.
4. I will not remind you about the test.
5. Faria will not appear for the interview.

D. Write questions using question words given in brackets.

1. When will they hold the tournament?
2. Where will his father drop him?
3. How will they travel to Ladakh?
4. Who will Mona come to the party with?
5. Why will Jeet call the doctor?
