

Vocabulary

page-56

Read and fill blanks. One has been done for you.

1. A clock is to hours as a calendar is to a year.
2. A man is to a house as a dog is to a kennel.
3. A mammal is to a giraffe as a reptile is to a snake.
4. A cow is to calf as a kangaroo is to a joey.
5. Wings are to a plane as wheels are to a bus.
6. Boil is to water as melt is to ice.
7. A mother is to home as a teacher is to a school.
8. A sofa is to a drawing room as a utensil is to a kitchen.

Correct the errors and rewrite these sentences.

Page-57

1. Neither the patient or the doctor is responsible in this hospital.
Ans. Neither the patient nor the doctor is responsible in this hospital.
2. A group of gypsies were dancing.
Ans. A group of gypsies was dancing.
3. Either let me do it nor do it yourself.
Ans. Either let me do it or do it yourself.
4. When the children walks in, clap loudly to cheer them.
Ans. When the children walk in, clap loudly to cheer them.
5. Take at least a bouquet of flower for the birthday girl.
Ans. Take at least a bouquet of flowers for the birthday girl.

6. A chest of drawers were open when the policemen entered.

Ans. A chest of drawers was open when the policemen entered.

7. Neither the mother nor her children was at home.

Ans. Neither the mother nor her children were at home.

8. The list of items are on my desk.

Ans. The list of items is on my desk.

Fill in each blank with the correct option from the brackets.

Page-58

1. He is a well-known (well-known/well known) author.

2. He is five years old (five years old/ five-years-old).

3. The hard-hearted (hard-hearted/hard hearted) women did not give food to the child.

4. The man was very short tempered (short-tempered/ short tempered).

5. The children watched her with wide-eyed (wide-eyed/wideeyed) wonder.

6. The fire-proof (fire-proof/fire proof) jacket of the firefighter saved his life.

7. His health was monitored for twenty-four (twenty-four/twenty four) hours.

8. The man-eating (man-eating/man eating) tiger was put in a zoo.