

Lesson 30 Punctuation

A. Read the following sentences and put commas(,) where they are required: (page 119)

1. He was laughing , wasn't he?
2. No, I don't like junk food.
3. Mother has asked you to bring sugar , milk, flour and eggs.
4. What are you preparing for lunch , mother?
5. No, you didn't tell me that.
6. The contestants were very talented. Two of them , infact , got full marks.
7. The library has six cupboards , a study table and a rocking chair.
8. If you don't listen to me , I will be angry.

B. Put full stop (.) , question marks (?) or exclamation marks(!) wherever required: (page 119)

1. They will come on Saturday.
2. Don't talk in class.
3. What a surprise!
4. Bring a glass of water for me.
5. Where are you coming from?
6. Meena is taller than Varun.
7. How is your brother?
8. How sweet the child is!

C. Use apostrophe (') wherever required:

1. My brother's cycle is lost.
2. Rajiv's bag is new.
3. The elephant's leg is injured.
4. Pia's dress is beautiful.
5. I didn't attend the art class.
6. Don't talk in class.

D. Put inverted commas (“ ”) where they are required :

1. “Where is Sumit ?” , asked Amit.
2. “ He is playing outside” , said Mona.
3. “I want ice cream” , shouted the child.
4. “ Yes, ma’am” , replied Shobha.
5. “You are a good dancer” , said her teacher.

E. Use capital letters wherever required :

1. Today is a holiday.
2. My favourite movie is the Jurassic Park.
3. I study in Modern High School.
4. Where has Raj gone?
5. I met Ravi Verma at the party.

F. Use punctuation marks and capital letters in the passage: (H.W)

*****