

Lesson 24 Interrogative Sentences

A. Rewrite these sentences as questions:

1. Monali has a new bag.

Ans Does Monali have a new bag?

2. I am lost.

Ans Am I lost?

3. Mita is reading a book.

Ans Is Mita reading a book?

4. Vineeta had a new car.

Ans Did Vineeta have a new car?

5. Monal was laughing at me.

Ans Was Monal laughing at me?

B. Use these sentences and frame questions as explains above:

1. Sonali loves Chinese food.

Ans Does Sonali love Chinese food?

2. Veena and meena watch cartoons.

Ans Do Veena and Meena watch cartoons?

3. I am late for school.

Ans Am I late for school?

4. Neelam works as a teacher.

Ans Does Neelam work as a teacher?

5. Rehan lives in Bengaluru.

Ans Does Rehan live in Bengaluru?

C. Use these sentences to frame questions as explained earlier:

1. She left her purse in the car.

Ans Did she leave her purse in the car?

2. They sang my favourite song.

Ans Did they sing my favourite song?

3. Seema worked hard.

Ans Did Seema work hard?

4. Maheen danced gracefully.

Ans Did Maheen dance gracefully?

5. The babies played till they were tired.

Ans Did the babies play till they were tired?

D. Complete the following conversation using the question words in bracket:

1. What is Rahul doing?

2. Whose car is that?

3. Who is the class teacher of class VA?

4. How did they come?

5. Why did Jyoti come late to school?

6. Where is Mohan going?

E. Add question tags to the following statements:

1. Pratima is tired , isn't she?

2. They are singing well, aren't they?

3. You will come to the party, won't you?

4. They will not appear for the test, would they? / will they?

5. The students of my class are working hard, aren't they?
