

Chapter 4

The Wily Jackal

Q. A Answer the following:

1. What was the Jackal fond of eating?

Ans : The Jackal was fond of eating fresh crabs.

2. Who gripped the jackal's paw tightly?

Ans: A crocodile gripped the jackal's paw tightly.

3. What was the jackal eating in the grove of trees?

Ans: The Jackal was eating ripe, juicy figs in the grove of trees.

4. Why was the crocodile tired while following the jackal on land?

Ans: The crocodile was not used to move on land so he got tired while following the Jackal.

5. What happened to the crocodile at the end of the story?

Ans The crocodile died in the fire at the end of the story.

Q. B Fill in the blanks:

1. Everyday, the jackal went to the nearby river.

2. A crocodile gripped the jackal's paw tightly in his jaws.

3. The crocodile saw the jackal entering a grove of trees.

4. The jackal was amazed to see a big heap of ripe figs in front of his house.

Q.C Write True and False:

1. The Jackal was very fond of eating fish.

False

2. The Jackal saved his life with his common sense.

True

3. The crocodile could move as fast as the jackal.

False

4. The jackal set his own house on fire.

True
