

CLASS VI - MORAL SCIENCE

L. 5 The Three Dolls (Notebook Work)

A. Answer the following questions.

1. What was special about the three dolls which the craftsman had brought?

Ans. The three dolls looked identical but were actually different from each other.

2. Why did the king keep the dolls on a table?

Ans. The king kept the dolls on the table to display them to his ministers and let them examine the dolls to find out the difference.

3. What happened when the king put the wire in the ear of:

(i) the first doll (ii) the second doll (iii) the third doll

Ans. (i) In the first doll, the wire came out from the other ear.

(ii) In the second doll, the wire came out of the mouth.

(iii) In the third doll, the wire stayed inside the doll.

4. What kind of friends did the following indicate:

(i) the first doll (ii) the second doll (iii) the third doll

Ans. (i) The first doll indicates friends who may pretend to listen to us but they don't. They don't take our problems seriously and there is no love in such friendship. They are bad friends.

(ii) The second doll stands for dangerous and the worst kind of friends. They are never trustworthy. They will not help but cause harm to us by spreading across our secrets or worries that we might have shared with them.

(iii) The third doll indicates the best type of friends. They are loyal and trustworthy. They always keep our secrets to themselves, help us and genuinely care for us.

B. Write true or false.

1. A true friend shares and discusses your problems with others. - False
2. A good friend tells your faults on your face, in public. - False
3. One should never tell their truth even to the closest friend. - False
4. A true friend should help you gain fame by spreading false stories of achievement about you.

- False

5. A true friend keeps your secrets closely guarded to his heart. - True

C. Who according to you is a true friend? Write five most important qualities you want in your friend.

Ans. A true friend is the one who understands us and who can be trusted with our secrets and feelings. True friends are genuinely caring in nature and help us in our difficult times.

The qualities that I want in a good friend are -

- (i) Loyalty
 - (ii) Trustworthiness
 - (iii) Understanding and empathy
 - (iv) Love and affection
 - (v) Selflessness
-