

L. 10 Too Much Technology

A. Answer the following questions.

1. What are the main uses of a computer?

Ans. A computer can be used for processing data, making documents, playing games, watching movies, drawing, colouring and surfing the internet to get vast information about anything.

2. How did Vishal misuse the Mathematics CD?

Ans. Vishal used the Mathematics CD to solve his Maths homework rather than using his brain and efforts which wasn't the correct way of studying.

3. Did getting stars in homework actually show Vishal's improvement? Why/ Why not?

Ans. No, the stars received in the homework did not show the actual improvement as Vishal had been using the computer to finish it. His work was not a product of his efforts.

4. What did Vishal realize when he started practicing for the Mathematics examination?

Ans. When he started practicing for the Maths examination, Vishal realized that he was getting stuck while solving the sums and wasn't able to solve them.

5. Why did Vishal's father remark that somebody else had been doing his homework?

Ans. Vishal's father knew very well that Vishal had been using the computer to finish his Maths work. So he remarked like that.

B. Encircle (Underline) the incorrect word . . . with the correct word.

- | | | |
|---|---|-------------|
| 1. Vishal had a new calculator . | - | computer |
| 2. Mathematics was always Vishal's favourite subject. | - | never |
| 3. The teacher was very upset with Vishal's progress. | - | happy |
| 4. Vishal's father encouraged him to use the Mathematics CD. | - | discouraged |
| 5. Vishal cleared the Mathematics exam. | - | failed in |
