

MORAL SCIENCE - VI

Ch. 3 One Fine Day (Copy Work)

A. Answer the following questions.

1. What were the main tasks of the boys?

Ans. Before the mother got injured, the main tasks of the boys were studying, finishing their homeworks and spending time on things of their interest.

2. What happened one day when the mother was coming back from the market?

Ans. One evening, while coming back from the market, the mother slipped and sprained her ankle.

3. Why did the father and the sons divide mother's work among themselves?

Ans. The mother was advised to rest by the doctor for a few days as she couldn't walk due to her injury. Hence, the father and the sons had to divide her work among themselves.

4. What was the main purpose of taking mother out for dinner?

Ans. They took mother out for dinner to celebrate her recovery and also to thank her for all her hard work to run the house and keep things in order. They were also sorry for not helping her earlier.

5. What did the mother feel at the end of the story?

Ans. The mother was surprised and very happy to find that her sons now understood their responsibilities at home.

B. Think and complete the sentences.

1. The sons never helped their mother in household work before because they took her for granted and were busy with things that interested them.

2. The mother never asked her sons to help her because she thought that it was her duty to keep the house in order.

3. Everybody in the house actually realised how much work she did when all the household work was divided among them due to mother's injury.

4. When the doctor said that the mother was fine, it was a moment of relief, because the father and the sons were unable to manage all the chores by themselves.

5. The family took the mother for dinner to celebrate her recovery and to thank her for all the hard work at home.

C. One incident changed many things at home. Pick instances from the chapter and write five before and after things. One is done for you.

	BEFORE		AFTER
1.	Everybody was busy with their own work.	1.	Everybody divided the household work.
2.	The boys didn't help the mother in household work.	2.	The boys started helping the mother in her chores.
3.	Father didn't cook.	3.	Father took over cooking when mother was ill.
4.	Sid and Adi did things that interested them.	4.	Sid and Adi cleaned the house, kept things in order and fetched groceries.
5.	They never thanked their mother for her hard work.	5.	They were very thankful for their mother's hard work around the house.

Home work

Page 13

Value Practice

My Activity Center
