

Chapter- 2

The lesson of life

Value- Discrimination

A gentleman is one who puts more into the world than he takes out.-G.B.Shaw

A. Answer the following questions

1. Why was Arjun so upset? Do you think even you would have felt the same if you were in his place?

Ans Arjun was so upset because he was not selected as head boy of class 8th in spite of being a good student.

PART B OF THE QUESTION KINDLY ANSWER ON YOUR OWN.

2. How did Arjun express his anger at home?

Ans. Arjun expressed his anger at home by throwing his bag on the couch and he shut the door behind him Arjun even refused to have lunch and told everyone to leave him alone.

3. Why did Arjun feel worse when after listening to him grandpa went to the kitchen?

Ans. Arjun felt worse when after listening to him grandpa went to the kitchen because grandpa did not utter anything about the reason he was upset about and not even sympathized with him.

4. What according to you is the meaning of 'small stuff'?

Ans. 'Small stuff' in life represent trivial issues and things in life like lunch in hotel, long drive, Ist position in competition etc. These small stuffs are not essential to make our life happy.

5. Do You agree with the way grandpa explained life to Arjun? Why /Why not?

Ans. Yes ,I agree with the way grandpa explained life to Arjun because to be happy in our life we need support of our family, robust health, company of our friends and our dignit.y