

Always help others who are in need. Help your family members, friends and needy people. Don't expect anything from them in return. God will reward you because He always watches your every good or bad deed.

Be soft-spoken. Speak respectfully and politely to the servants, guards, gardeners, washermen and cobbler. They will bless you. They will also praise your parents for your good behaviour.

Learning Quotient

A. Answer the following questions:

1. Why should you pray to God?

We should pray to God to save us from all evils.

2. Do you obey and respect your elders?

Yes, I obey and respect my elders.

3. Why should you help needy people?

We always should help needy people because

4. Who watches your every good or bad deed?

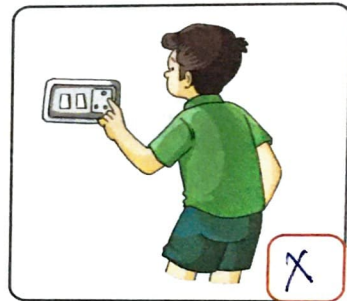

God watches our every good or bad deed.

they will bless you and God will reward you.

B. Fill in the blanks:

1. No one likes children with bad habits.
2. God will save you from all evils.
3. Wash your hands before and after meals.
4. Don't expect anything from others in return.

C. Tick (✓) or cross (✗) the actions you should do or should not do:

Application Quotient

1. List three good habits and try to follow them.
2. Write ten good habits on a chart paper and hang it on the classroom wall.