

Lesson - 2

BOOK EXERCISE

1. A situation in which river water increases and enters the area around causing destruction.

➤ Flood

2. The act of making land, water and air impure and harmful for life.

➤ Pollution

3. It's the process of cutting forests.

➤ Deforestation

4. A long period of very little or no rainfall causing damage to life.

➤ Drought

5. It's the natural home of animals, plants or other living beings.

➤ Habitat

6. It is the energy obtained from the Sun's heat and light and is safe for the environment.

➤ Solar energy

7. It lives in the Arctic region and its future is in great danger because of the melting ice.

➤ Polar bear

A yellow sticky note with a blue pushpin at the top left corner. The note is slightly curled at the bottom left.

T

A yellow sticky note with a blue pushpin at the top left corner. The note is slightly curled at the bottom left.

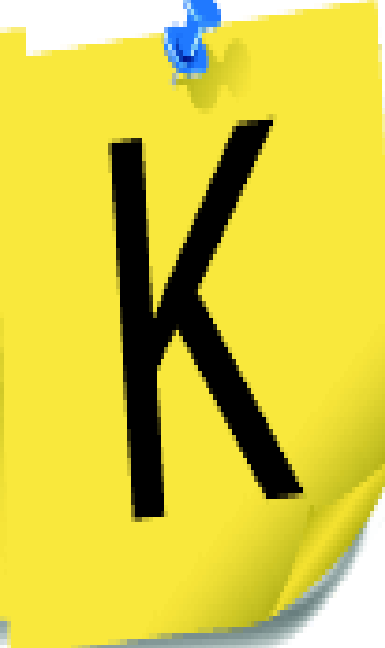

H

A yellow sticky note with a blue pushpin at the top left corner. The note is slightly curled at the bottom left.

A

A yellow sticky note with a blue pushpin at the top left corner. The note is slightly curled at the bottom left.

N

A yellow sticky note with a blue pushpin at the top left corner. The note is slightly curled at the bottom left.

K

A yellow sticky note with a blue pushpin at the top left corner. The note is slightly curled at the bottom left.

Y

A yellow sticky note with a blue pushpin at the top left corner. The note is slightly curled at the bottom left.

O

A yellow sticky note with a blue pushpin at the top left corner. The note is slightly curled at the bottom left.

U

A yellow sticky note with a blue pushpin at the top left corner. The note is slightly curled at the bottom left.

!