II. PARAGRAPH WRITING:

Write a paragraph of about 8-10 lines on any four topics given below:

1. A Hot Summer Day: It is summer now, and it is the best time to write on this topic.

A typical hot summer day for me, is watching TV with the cooler on and sipping on iced lime juice. In my summer vacations, I have a lot of fun playing indoors, enjoying home-made ice creams and lassi. My mother makes sure that I have enough water and juices to keep myself hydrated. But, it turns unbearable when there's no electricity. During the night, my grandpa and I like to rest on a bed on the terrace. He tells me very interesting stories. Sometimes it becomes very hot in the afternoons. The evenings are cooler and I have a great time cycling with my friends. However, I have to bathe to freshen up myself before I sleep. Well, a hot summer day is not bad with electricity.

2. A Rainy Day: Among all the seasons, I like the rainy season the most. Today is a rainy day – it has been raining all day long. I had gone out to play, but had to rush back home because of the rain. By the time, I reached home, I was all wet. I changed and went to my balcony. What a wonderful scene it was! I spotted a lovely rainbow up in the sky. This is the second time, I have seen a rainbow in my life. The streets are full of rain water and I see vehicles moving past each other splashing water all over. I love how the mud smells when it starts raining. There are so many things I love about rains – getting wet in the rain, playing football, eating hot pakoras fried by mom, floating paper boats with my friends and the list goes on. Only that, sometimes, rains bring bad TV relay and no electricity. But still rainy season remains the best for me.

3. A Holiday at Home: Who does not love holidays? A holiday is a blessing. There are no rules for getting up early, packing up for school, catching the bus on time, reporting home works to the teacher etc. A holiday gives me a break and helps me to relax from the daily routine. Holidays at home mean waking up late, walking lazily, eating brunch at noon, playing and watching TV all day. Although there is some pressure to get things ready for the next day school, but that's manageable. It's a Sunday today. I had a relaxed day. I read a few books in the morning and helped mummy with the dishes. She was happy and gave me some extra pocket money to buy my favourite chocolate bar. I have played enough and had my dinner which was delicious. Now I am in my bed, trying to sleep on time to get up early for school tomorrow. It was a great day today.

4. Our School Picnic: This is the day I wait for every year. And it finally arrived this year too – the school picnic. Unlike the previous years, our school management had planned to take us to a new place this time. It was 'Touchwood Resort'. I was very excited that I was going to a water park resort with my friends. We reached the school early that day. After the morning assembly and roll call, we boarded our buses with our teachers towards our destination. We sang songs and enjoyed our snacks on the way. Once we had reached the venue, we were served sumptuous breakfast. Now it was time to plunge into the waters, sprinklers and musical fountains. We enjoyed them thoroughly. There were also play areas with swings and activity zones. I did mountain climbing too. We then headed for lunch and relaxed under the cool shade of the trees in the resort. Then our teachers directed us back to our buses to reach back safely by evening to our school, where our parents were waiting eagerly to take us back. It was a truly memorable trip.
